

RICHESON BOUGHT A WEDDING RING FOR AVIS LINNELL

Prosecutor Was Ready to Prove This and Also That He Performed a Ceremony.

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—A sensation developed today when it became known positively that Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson bought a wedding ring at Mrs. Josie Greer's jewelry shop in Hyannis and gave it to Avis Linnell on her eighteenth birthday.

Lawyers who have aided the prosecution admitted today that this fact would have been sprung at the trial together with seemingly irrefutable evidence that Richeson had performed some form of wedding ceremony to make the girl believe she was his wife.

It was to see if Avis wore this ring on the third finger of her left hand when she died, and to read an inscription inside the little gold band that the midnight examination of the girl's body was ordered a week after burial.

TWO AUTOS, WAGON, HORSE AND THREE MEN IN MIX-UP.

Double Collision and Runaway Create Excitement on Broadway—Nobody Hurt.

A double collision, in which two automobiles, an express wagon, a horse, two chauffeurs and a driver figured, created considerable excitement at Thirty-third street and Broadway today. The vehicles were damaged, but the chauffeurs, the driver and the horse escaped injury.

A manufacturer's limousine car, south-bound, in charge of Chauffeur August Misch, ran into an express wagon, also south-bound and driven by John Kelly of No. 64 East Sixteenth street. The horse ran away, dragging the wagon against an automobile standing at the curb in such a way that the wheels of the two vehicles were locked. The horse broke away, but was stopped a block below by Policeman Taylor of the Traffic Squad, Frank A'ward, the chauffeur, was the only occupant of the automobile which was struck by the express wagon. The owner of the car is John W. Hill.
